Taking TRAINING TO A NEW LEVEL

Fire Warden Training – 3 hours

Fire Wardens will learn what their role is and how to perform the task effectively and within legal guidelines. The course covers a general understanding of the Health & Safety in Employment Act 1992. Course includes unit standard 497

Safe Manual Handling in your Workplace – 3 hours

This course show the mechanics of how the spine works so trainees understand WHY they should lift correctly. After tuition, trainees then assess others in their lifting techniques

Health & Safety Representative – 1 day

This course is designed for your champion of Health & Safety and H&S Committee members. They will learn how to manage H&S in your workplace to make your employees safer and to ensure legal compliance of your workplace. This course provides real examples relating to setting up a H&S team, managing H&S meetings, hazard management and registers, how to conduct a regular safety audit and more.

Health & Safety Incident Investigation – 1 day

“Operator should be more careful” is the excuse on most accident investigations. Investigators need to be trained on how to investigate with OSH guidelines so they can reduce the likelihood of further accidents and ensure that your workplace is compliant.

All courses can be run at our training facility or on your site !
